

DUPONT Reno, NV

Lamb planned, designed and built a new flammable goods storage warehouse and distribution center for Dupont's Automotive Paint Group.

This building incorporated an advanced fire protection system and extensive spill containment provisions inside and outside the building. We provided planning and design/integration of the warehouse racking layout, vertical picking mezzanine and automatic conveyor system.

The entire project was fast-tracked from initial planning to punch list completion in fifteen months.

